HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS MATTER

WE ARE TALKING TO YOUR KIDS, ARE YOU?

Aiming for Healthy Families, Inc. is a community based Non-Profit Organization focused on implementing healthy relationships education and positive youth development programs in North Mississippi middle schools, high schools, and communities. Certified, experienced educators offer 8-12 abstinence based lessons in school districts across the area. In addition to our work in the schools, we offer...

Positive Youth Development Programs & Workshops

Our certified, knowledgeable educators are in school districts in North Mississippi teaching an abstinence-based healthy relationships curriculum. In addition to working inside the schools we offer positive youth development workshops with topics that include: Risky Behaviors, Angry Brain, Human Trafficking, Self-Regulation, Tobacco Use, Social Media, Your Digital Footprint, plus many more.

Parent & Educator Workshops

Whether they know it or not, parents are the #1 source for helping children navigate the teen years. Our educators are in the schools on a daily basis teaching and talking to your students. We offer "Parent Talk" Workshops focused on talking to your teens about tough topics... It's not easy, but we can help.
